

- Lettered in three varsity sports at EHS - basketball, soccer and lacrosse - 1982-84
- All-State (honorable mention) and first Team All-Suburban League honors for lacrosse in 1983
- All-Suburban League, All-State and All-American honors in lacrosse - 1984
- Shared top male athlete honors for EHS in 1984
- Earned a Bachelor of Science in clinical microbiology and Master of Arts in Molecular Biology/Genetics from West Chester University
- Received his MBA from Cornell University
- Captained the West Chester University lacrosse team in 1987 and 1988
- West Chester University's all-time leading scorer
- Honorable mention All-America in 1988, while attending WCU
- Inducted into West Chester University's Athletic Hall of Fame in February, 2002. His Jersey was also retired.
- Directed GlaxoSmithKline's worldwide business development transactions and was co-leader for the largest single asset deal transacted in pharmaceutical history
- Vice President of Business and Corporate Development at Endo Pharmaceuticals
- Credited with development of three currently marketed anti-viral medicines
- Co-author of three scientific articles and speaker at numerous scientific and educational forums related to cardiovascular and metabolic drugs
- Guest speaker at Rockefeller University in 2003-2204 discussing pharma's perspective on licensing business development

Alan was appointed in 2010 as an Adjunct Professor in the Pre-Medical Department of West Chester University where he lectured and assisted with defining curriculum for the Pharmaceutical Development Program.

In December of 2012, West Chester University honored Alan by inviting him to speak at the Commencement Ceremony. Alan addressed 900 undergraduates and 223 master's degree candidates.

Alan presently volunteers for the Lionville Youth Association as a lacrosse coach.